List of Measures and Their Subscales
PSY 361 Fall 2016 Study
Prof. Bauer

This list serves as a key to the abbreviations of variables as they appear on the statistics printout. This list also allows you to find a specific item (i.e., survey question) for any given measure: Use the item numbers listed here to find those items in the survey itself.

Items 4-13: Ten Item Personality Inventory (Gosling, Rentfrow, & Swann, 2003)
This measure has 10 items total, consisting of five subscales of two items each
- TIPI_N = Neuroticism (items 4, 9R; “R” denotes reverse-scored items)
- TIPI_E = Extraversion (1, 6R)
- TIPI_O = Openness to experience (5, 10R)
- TIPI_C = Conscientiousness (3, 8R)
- TIPI_A = Agreeableness (2R, 7)

Items 14-25: Achievement Goal Questionnaire – Revised (Elliot & McGregor, 2001)
This measure has 12 items total, consisting of four subscales of three items each
- AGQ_MasApp = Mastery Approach Achievement Goals (items 11, 13, 17)
- AGQ_MasAvd = Mastery Avoidance Achievement Goals (15, 19, 21)
- AGQ_PerfApp = Performance Approach Achievement Goals (12, 14, 18)
- AGQ_PerfAvd = Performance Avoidance Achievement Goals (16, 20, 22)

Items 26-33: Growth Motivation Index (Bauer, Park, Montoya, & Wayment, 2014)
This measure has 8 items total, consisting of two subscales of four items each
- GMI_Exp = Experiential Growth Motivation (items 23-26)
- GMI_Ref = Reflective Growth Motivation (earlier ppt called it “intellectual growth motivation”) (items 27-30)

Items 34-38: Satisfaction with Life Scale (Diener, Emmons, Larsen, & Griffin, 1985)
This is an 5-item measure with no subscale
- SWL = Life satisfaction

Items 39-50: Passion Scale (Vallerand et al., 2003)
This measure has 12 items total, consisting of two subscales of six items each
- HP = Harmonious Passion (36, 38, 40, 41, 43, 45)
- OP = Obsessive Passion (37, 39, 42, 44, 46, 47)

Items 51-92: Psychological Well-Being (Ryff & Singer, 1998)
- This measure has 42 items total, consisting of six subscales of seven items each
- This scale is a little tricky to write about, so follow the same phrasing format that is described below under “PWB_AU” and apply tem to the other subscales
- For item numbers, skip to the bottom of this document
- PWB_AU = Autonomy (you may use the abbreviation of PWB-autonomy when mentioning the measure/variable; you may refer to it as participants’ “sense of well-being with respect to autonomy,” or simply their “sense of autonomy” as long as you make sure it’s clear early in your paper that PWB-autonomy is a form of well-being.

PWB_EM = Environmental Mastery (a measure of how much one feels a general sense of mastery in various situations or activities in life)
PWB_PG = Personal Growth (a measure of how much one feels that one has grown)
PWB_PL = Purpose in Life (a measure of how much one feels a sense of purpose in life)
PWB_PR = Positive Relationships (a measure of how much one feels that their relationships with other people are good)
PWB_SA = Self-Acceptance (a measure of how much one accepts one’s life and who one is)

• Items for each dimension of PWB as listed in order as they appear in our survey. However, in our survey, the same items are numbered as items 48-89. To figure out which item below corresponds to which item in the survey, just add 47 to the number below. That will be the number of that item in the survey.
