COMMITTEE: LTC Innovation Grants (2007-08)

REFERENCE DOCUMENT: Faculty Handbook

VICE PRESIDENT RESPONSIBLE: Dr. Fred Pestello

LEAD RESPONSIBILITY: Dr. Deb Bickford, Associate Provost for Academic Affairs and Learning Initiatives

APPOINTMENT LETTER SIGNED BY: Dr. Fred Pestello, Provost

Updated: September 2007

TERM: 3 years; student representatives are appointed for one year.

PURPOSE:

This committee replaces the Fund for Educational Development committee. The LTC Innovation Grants Committee has as its charge the review of faculty proposals and to support curricular and learning innovations at UD. The LTC Innovation Grants exist to support proposals that promise to design, implement, and evaluate new modes of teaching and learning that are more effective and productive, and to support individuals as they work on projects to enhance the Learning Village. The LTC Innovation Grants Committee is advisory to the Associate Provost for Academic Affairs and Learning Initiatives. The LTC Innovation Grants program is sponsored by the Ryan C. Harris Learning Teaching Center with additional funds from UDit, as well as the Graduate School for grants pertaining to graduate education. Additional information is available at http://LTC.udayton.edu/faculty/facdev/grants/LTC\_IG.htm.

MEETINGS: At the call of the chairperson.

MEMBERSHIP COMPOSITION: Faculty members from the academic units and students representatives. The Associate Provost for Academic Affairs and Learning Initiatives and the Director of Curriculum Innovation and E-learning are ex-officio members and serve as co-chairs.
