Information about Services for All Students Including Students with Disabilities

The Learning Teaching Center's Office of Learning Resources (OLR) is a resource for all students at the University of Dayton. SLS offers a wide variety of services to assist you in achieving academic success at the university, including study skills classes and workshops, tutoring and consultations, disability screenings, and a web site with many resources:

A Message to Students with Disabilities

If you feel you need an accommodation based on the impact of a physical or learning disability, please contact me privately to discuss your specific needs. Formal disability-related accommodations are determined through the OLR. It is very important that you be registered with OLR and notify me of your eligibility for reasonable accommodations with a signed Self-Identification Form. We can then plan how best to coordinate your accommodations. For more information, please contact OLR at 937-229-2066, by email at disabilityservices@notes.udayton.edu. You may also stop by the OLR office in the LTC 023, which is located in the basement of the library.

Please note that students with documented learning disabilities who wish to take their exams in the LTC must notify me a few days prior to each exam so that I may have the exam materials delivered before exam day.
